ALMA MATER

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the mountains of God
Over the Fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod.
Beacon of Hope in the ways dreary lighted;
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us—
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.

We, with our faces turned high to the Eastward Proud of our place in the vanguard of Truth, Will sing unto thee a new song of thanksgiving—Honor to God and the Springtime of Youth. Shout for the victory or tear for the vanquished; Sunshine or tempest thy heart is e'er true; Pride of the hills and the white-laden Lowlands—Mother of Mothers, we kneel unto you.

Ever the Legions of Sin will assail us,
Even the Battle in Cities afar;
Still in the depth will thy Spirit eternal
Beckon us on like a piloting Star.
Down the dim years do thy dead children call thee,
Wafted to sleep while the Springtime was new;
We, of the Present, thy Hope of the Future—
Mother of Mothers, we pray unto you.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE AND BATONS

The mace and batons are symbols of the authority and history of the University and are made from balusters from the original main staircase of Old Main, erected in 1875, the oldest University building now standing. The batons are carried by members of the faculty who are serving as marshals.

MARSHALS' GOWNS

The gowns worn by the marshals are of the traditional University color, cardinal red.

HONOR STOLES

White or cardinal stoles denote students who are candidates for University Honors. Cardinal represents Honors (cum laude) and white represents High Honors (magna cum laude). White stoles with cardinal and white cords represent Highest Honors (summa cum laude).

THE UNIVERSITY SONG

In 1909 a prize of fifty dollars was offered for the best poem relating to the University of Arkansas that should be capable of being set to music and used as a college song. Out of many entries, that of Mr. Brodie Payne, '1906, of Hot Springs won the prize. The words were set to music by Professor H. D. Tovey, Director of the Conservatory of Music and Art at the University.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The styles of gowns differentiate degree level. Trim of doctoral gowns indicates nature of degree (black or royal blue — Ph.D.; light blue — Ed.D.). Certain members of the faculty wear distinctive gowns and hoods authorized by their doctoral institutions. The lining of the hood denotes the color(s) of the institution awarding the degree. The official colors of the University of Arkansas are cardinal and white.

The color of the velvet band around the hood designates the academic degree of the wearer. Some examples are listed below:

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The Seal of the University of Arkansas is affixed to each diploma and is stamped in gold on each diploma cover. The central element in the Seal is the front entrance to Old Main, the oldest building on campus.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Governor Mike Beebe Honorary Doctorate of Laws, LLD

Arkansas Governor Mike Beebe leaves office next month, after serving 20 years as an Arkansas state senator, one term as attorney general, and two terms as governor.

His life is a testament to the power of hard work and education. Beebe was born to a single mother in 1946. They lived in many places around the country as he grew up, finally settling in Newport when he was a teenager. He attended Newport High School, found mentors in the local community and worked at a local grocery store. After graduation, he used an Arkansas Rural Endowment Fund loan to attend Arkansas State University, where he earned an overall 4.1 grade point average.

Beebe graduated from the University of Arkansas School of Law in 1972 and joined the Searcy law firm of Lightle, Tedder and Hannah. He was appointed to the Arkansas State University Board of Trustees when he was 26, and served a five-year term, the last two years as Chairman.

In 1982 Beebe was elected to the state Senate, where he quickly established himself as an expert on the state budget and legislative process. He was instrumental in crafting legislation for ARKids First, extending Medicaid coverage to the children of low-income working parents, and worked with Republican Gov. Mike Huckabee to win its passage.

Beebe was elected Arkansas Attorney General in 2002, focusing on child safety and law enforcement issues during his four years there.

As governor, Beebe has combined his legislative expertise, bipartisan consensus-building and passion to improve the lives of all Arkansans to compile an unprecedented record of accomplishments.

He worked with state lawmakers to repeatedly pass bills to nearly eliminate the state sales tax on groceries.

He championed the creation and funding of a statewide trauma care system.

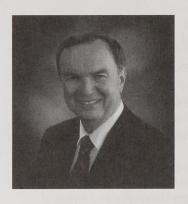

He led bipartisan efforts to expand pre-kindergarten programs, increase adequacy funding for K-12 education, establish need-based college scholarships and increase support for higher education.

Beebe advocated economic development and worked with lawmakers and communities to bring new businesses and thousands of new jobs to Arkansas.

Most recently he worked with both parties to create the innovative "Private Option" plan, making private health-insurance plans available to more than 200,000 previously uninsured Arkansans.

Beebe received the Chancellor's Medal and the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the University of Arkansas. In 2011 he was named Public Official of the Year by Governing magazine.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Michael T. Duke
Honorary Doctorate of Engineering, DEng

Michael T. Duke served as president and CEO of Walmart Stores Inc. from 2009 until his retirement in 2014, and he is currently chair of the company's Executive Committee.

Duke was raised on a small farm in rural Georgia. He graduated from the Georgia Institute of Technology (Georgia Tech) with a bachelor's degree in industrial engineering and began his 42-year retail industry career in Atlanta. He joined Walmart in 1995 and held several top executive positions before being named chief executive officer of the world's largest retail company.

Walmart prospered under Duke's leadership, but he also took bold steps to drive social responsibility across the company's global footprint.

Duke created the President's Global Council of Women Leaders, a group of Walmart's top female executives, to develop and advance female associates within the company. The increased number of women and minority members in top Walmart positions led the national Network of Executive Women to award Duke two of its highest honors.

Walmart's Global Women's Economic Empowerment Initiative further promoted diversity by pledging to purchase $20 billion in goods from women-owned businesses nationally and globally. Locally, Duke encouraged a partnership with the University of Arkansas that increased enrollment and graduation of minority and underrepresented students in the College of Engineering.

Duke was a catalyst for broadening and accelerating Walmart's sustainability initiatives. He supported The Sustainability Consortium, an independent research partnership between the University of Arkansas and Arizona State University. Walmart's support was essential to establishing the consortium's Sustainability Index, which helps global businesses reduce waste and pollution.

Under Duke's leadership, Walmart led the fight on hunger, committing $2 billion in cash and food donations over a five-year period in the U.S. and pledging support to help food banks and distribution centers operate more efficiently.

Duke encouraged Walmart associates to get involved in anti-hunger efforts in their own communities and set an example of local involvement, enabling a Walmart Foundation grant to the student-run Full Circle Campus Food Pantry at the University of Arkansas. The gift sparked an outpouring of additional support, enabling the pantry to assist thousands of members of the campus community and become a model for programs at other colleges and universities. Mike and Susan Duke have also been personally generous to many programs at the University of Arkansas.

As Walmart CEO, Mike Duke was uniquely able to affect people throughout the world. His vision, integrity and servant leadership are his enduring legacy.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Andrew D. Hamilton Honorary Doctorate of Arts and Sciences, DArSc

Andrew Hamilton, vice-chancellor of the University of Oxford, has dedicated his career to advancing higher education in both the United States and his native United Kingdom, as a teacher, researcher and university administrator.

He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry from the University of Exeter, his master's degree from the University of British Columbia, his doctorate from Cambridge University and a year of post-doctoral work at the Université Louis Pasteur.

Hamilton taught chemistry at Princeton University and the University of Pittsburgh before being named the Irénée duPont Professor of Chemistry at Yale University, where he taught molecular biophysics and biochemistry and later chaired Yale's Department of Chemistry. He became Yale's Benjamin Silliman Professor of Organic Chemistry in 2004, the same year he was named provost.

Hamilton is a synthetic organic chemist and the co-holder of 19 patents related to medicinal chemistry. His research has concentrated on using synthetic design to understand, mimic and disrupt the biological processes of such diseases as cancer, malaria and Chagas infections.

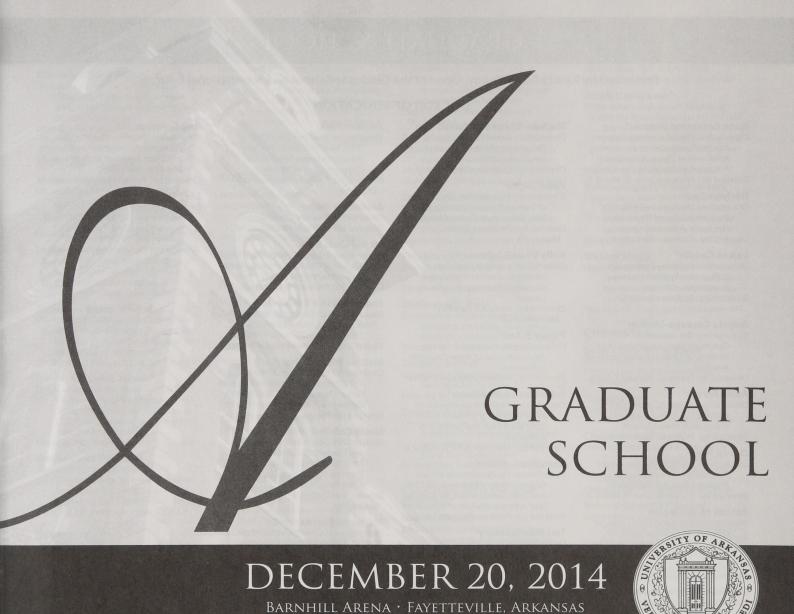

His research is internationally recognized. In 2004 he was elected a Fellow of both the Royal Society and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Hamilton's accomplishments as an administrator are at least as impressive as his roles as teacher and researcher.

As Yale's provost, Hamilton expanded research programs in the sciences and humanities, increased faculty diversity, and helped create both Yale's Center for Genomics and Proteomics and the Yale Institute for Nanoscience and Quantum Engineering.

Hamilton returned to England as vice-chancellor of Oxford in late 2009, serving as the university's chief executive officer. He has been the driving force in what the institution describes as "the biggest fundraising campaign in European history," with the goal of raising the equivalent of $4.82 billion. At the same time he has been a strong advocate for increased public support for higher education in the United Kingdom, warning that both people and nations are harmed when public funding for higher education is cut.

Hamilton has continued his own research and still serves as a professor of organic chemistry, spending a portion of each day in the lab. In 2010, he was elected a Member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and, in 2011, he received the International Izatt Christiansen Award in Macrocyclic Chemistry. Each year he oversees Oxford University's commemoration of J. William Fulbright, which features a distinguished lecturer, a visiting fellowship, as well as Fulbright rooms at Pembroke College.
